

3772-20-08 Communications system.

- (A) Each casino operator ~~licensee or applicant~~ shall have a communications system that allows all members of the security department to communicate with each other.
- (B) The communications system shall provide two-way communications between members of the security department and members of the surveillance department.
- (C) The communications system shall be available to and useable by the commission, its gaming agents, or other authorized personnel upon request.