In re:

VICTOR LANE
CASINO GAMING EMPLOYEE LICENSE
APPLICANT

Respondent.

Case No. 2012-0160

ORDER DENYING CASINO GAMING EMPLOYEE LICENSE APPLICATION

On or about July 23, 2012, Respondent Victor Lane filed a Casino Gaming Employee License Application (“Application”) with the Ohio Casino Control Commission (“Commission”). (Hr’g Ex. G.) Thereafter, the Commission conducted a suitability investigation of Lane to determine his eligibility for such a license.

During the suitability investigation, the Commission discovered sufficient derogatory information to warrant issuance of a Notice of Intent to Deny and Opportunity for Hearing (“Notice”), dated November 27, 2012. (See Hr’g Ex. B.) Lane received the Notice, sent via certified mail, on November 28, 2012. (Hr’g Ex. C.) Pursuant to O.R.C. 119.07 and 3772.04, Lane had the right to a hearing if requested within 30 days of the Notice’s mailing. Lane so requested and the Commission scheduled a hearing for December 20, 2012; and upon its own motion, the Commission continued the hearing until December 27, 2012. (Hr’g Ex. E.) Lane appeared at the hearing without counsel. Accordingly, the Commission held the hearing as scheduled before Hearing Examiner John Williams (“Examiner”).

After presentation and submission of the evidence at the hearing, the Examiner agreed to close the record. (Tr. 49.) The Examiner prepared a Report and Recommendation (“R&R”), which he submitted on January 23, 2013. Therein, the Examiner found that Lane: 1) submitted an Application to the Commission that contained false information, in violation of O.R.C. 3772.10(C)(2) and (F) (R&R 11); 2) failed to set forth in his Application all information required by the Commission, in violation of O.R.C. 3772.10(C)(5), O.R.C. 3772.131(D), and Ohio Adm. Code 3772-8-02(A) (Id.); 3) was not convicted of an offense that contained an element of moral turpitude, a disqualifying offense as defined in O.R.C. 3772.07(D), in violation of O.R.C. 3772.10(C)(1) (Id. at 12); and 4) failed to establish by clear and convincing evidence his suitability for licensure as a Casino Gaming Employee, as required by O.R.C. 3772.10(B) and 3772.10(C)(7). (Id.) As a result of these findings, the Examiner recommended that the Commission deny Lane’s Application. (Id.)

On January 24, 2013, the Commission sent Lane, via certified mail, a copy of the R&R. (App. #1; App. #2.) Lane received the R&R on January 28, 2013, (App. #2), giving him until February 27, 2013, to file objections, see O.R.C. 3772.04(A)(2). Lane did not file any objections with the Commission.

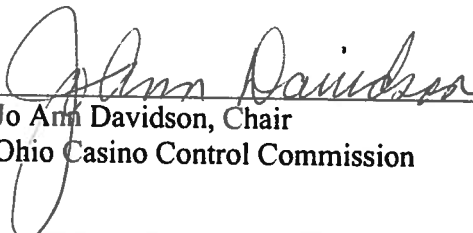

In accordance with O.R.C. 119.07 and 3772.04, the matter was submitted to the Commission on March 20, 2013, for final adjudication.

WHEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing and upon a quorum and majority vote of the members, the Commission ADOPTS the Examiner's R&R without modification.

WHEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing and upon a quorum and majority vote of the members, the Commission ORDERS as follows:

- 1) Lane's Application is DENIED;
- 2) Lane is PROHIBITED from working or otherwise serving in any capacity that requires a license under O.R.C. Chapter 3772;
- 3) Lane is PROHIBITED from reapplying for licensure under O.R.C. Chapter 3772 for three years from the date this Order is served upon him, absent a waiver granted by the Commission commensurate with Ohio Adm. Code 3772-1-04; and
- 4) A certified copy of this Order shall be served upon Lane, via certified mail, return receipt requested, and his counsel of record, if any, via ordinary mail.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Jo Ann Davidson, Chair
Ohio Casino Control Commission

NOTICE OF APPEAL RIGHTS

Respondent is hereby notified that pursuant to O.R.C. 119.12, this Commission Order may be appealed by filing a Notice of Appeal with the Commission setting forth the Order that Respondent is appealing from and stating that the Commission's Order is not supported by reliable, probative, and substantial evidence and is not in accordance with law.
