- (10) Procedures to describe irregularities of the game, including dice off the table and soiled cards; and

(11) any other consideration that the Commission deems necessary, including fairness to patrons.-

(B) The commission may use an independent testing laboratory to evaluate the proposed table game, its rules, and associated equipment.

(C) The commission may require a trial period to assess the functionality of the table game, rules of the game, and associated equipment in a live gaming environment. The conduct of the trial period shall be subject to compliance by the casino operator with any conditions that may be required by the commission, including duration of the trial.

(D) A casino operator shall not install a table game or associated equipment unless the table game, rules of the game, and associated equipment have been approved by the commission for use at the casino facility.

(E) A casino operator may only offer commission-approved table games for play, and must operate the games according to the approved rules.

(F) The casino operator shall notify the executive director in writing and receive written approval at least five days before moving or disposing of a table game or associated equipment that has been approved.

(G) Any modification to a table game or the associated equipment may be authorized by the executive director on an emergency basis to prevent cheating or malfunction. The emergency request shall be documented by the casino operator. The request shall specify the name and employer of any persons to be involved in the installation of the modification and the manner in which the installation is to be effected. Within fifteen days of receipt of any authorization to install an emergency modification, the casino operator shall submit the modification for full evaluation and approval in accordance with this chapter.

(H) Each casino operator shall notify the commission's gaming agent on duty of any known or suspected defect or malfunction in any table game or associated equipment installed in the casino facility ~~no later than four hours after detection~~ at the time of detection. The casino operator shall comply with any instructions from the commission staff for the use of the table game or associated equipment.
